

As a long time user of the 160 meter band, I wholeheartedly agree with the adoption of this bandplan. With the increased activity on 160, the narrow-band and wide-band modes need separate allocations just as on all the other HF bands.